How I work:

Start with the destination: By taking you on a discovery journey, asking what the best version of the future is you want for yourself, your leadership, your team your business we can reverse engineer and build the right road map to take you along that journey. By working in this way, it means you have full control of the destination you want to go to, and I can provide the tools and support and process to ensure you get there.

My Values are to provide coaching and learning that has impact, leaves a lasting and meaningful legacy adds value is delivered with warmth energy and empathy and allows for the right amount of fun and creativity along the way.

Coaching Sessions: can be in person or virtual (using Microsoft Teams or Zoom)Learning Sessions: can be virtual (dependant on group size subject and outcomes required) or in person.
